while standing close by in case it get's out of hand.

- 4. The consumer you are taking care of is diabetic and is learning how to make healthy food choices. On a community outing, the consumer insists they have the right to purchase a snack which you know has way too much sugar to be healthy for the consumer. What do you do?
 - A. Take away the snack and tell the consumer they have to get something else.
 - B. Encourage the consumer to get something else, but if the consumer refuses, let them eat their snack.
 - C. Explain to the consumer that if they don't give up the snack you'll have to end the outing and take the consumer home
- 5. If the consumer you are providing services to becomes ill with 105 degree fever what would you do?
 - A. Call 911
 - B. Call the consumer's Case Manager
 - C. Give them Tylenol and send them to bed or if you're in the community, bring them home.
- 6. Can a consumer with intellectual and developmental disabilities make good choices?
 - A. No they are too impaired
 - B. No they might make a wrong decision
 - C. Yes and I will assist if needed
- 7. If the rules of Bluebonnet Trails Community Services say I have to do something different than I have always done them, I will:
 - A. Do it their way
 - B. Do it my way and not tell
 - C. Do what I think is best
- 8. You are working with a consumer on how to make purchases; specifically, to wait for change when buying something and to count that the change is correct. The consumer bought a baseball cap for $7.80 and gave the seller $15.00. How much change should the consumer receive back?
- 9. You are accompanying a consumer to a movie during a group outing. You know that the tickets will cost $7.50 and that, if the consumer wants to buy a drink, the drink will cost $4.50. Before you leave the consumer's house, you will check to see if she brought enough money. How much money does she need for the outing?
- 10. A volunteer group has come to the day habilitation program to teach square dancing. It is cold and flu season and several of the consumers have missed attendance due to illness and a few have runny noses. Before starting the square dancing, you need to ask the consumers in your group to:
 - A. Introduce themselves to the teacher.
 - B. Go to the sink and wash their hands real good with soap.

C. Help you push the chairs to the wall to make room for the activity.
