SPONSOR FAQs

Join our team of ETS Sponsors and have a significant impact upon a transitioning Service Member and their family.

Who can be a sponsor?

Anyone- military or civilian- who cares about our service members and Veterans and is willing and able to commit the time.

What are the sponsor's responsibilities?

- Sponsors contact the transitioning service member regularly.
- Sponsors guide the transitioning service member in identifying goals and developing action plans to achieve these goals.
- Sponsors share their knowledge of the local area and available resources with the transitioning service member.
- Sponsors, who are trained and caring, make the ETS Sponsorship Program effective and unique in its mission.

Who will help me on this journey?

Throughout the journey with the transitioning service member, The ETS Sponsorship Program leadership and regional contacts serve as a network of support for our sponsors. They provide tips on building relationships and guidance along the way.

From one of our transitioning Service Members:

Paul has been great. He has connected me with some other folks and resources that has been a huge help. I just moved across the world to a city where we do not know anyone. So, he has been a great help in that regard.

-Mark (Transitioning Service Member)
